

Notre Dame Club of Gettysburg

GETTYSBURG HOSPITALITY!

The Gettysburg club always enjoys having visitors in town from Notre Dame. It has become a tradition for us to make their visit one to remember. On this trip Dominic Vachon was busy during his time in Gettysburg - Friday night dinner at the Carriage House Inn in Emmitsburg, Saturday breakfast at the Gettysburg Hotel, a tour of the Wills House where Abe Lincoln spent the night prior to giving his address, a John Murphy tour of the battlefield, and lunch at the Farnsworth House. Dominic was especially pleased with the patented Murphy Tour!

LEFT - Jean Conrad, Jim Conrad, John Murphy, and Dominic Vachon pose for a photo at the Farnsworth House. John was able to obtain a private table in the dining room for this event. (The dining room is closed during lunch.)

BELOW—TOP - LtoR —1. John, Jean and Dominic at breakfast. 2. The gang poses with Abe Lincoln. 3. The Farnsworth House beckons. BOTTOM—LtoR 4. Dominic at the Irish Brigade Monument during the Murphy Tour. 5. Dom considers taking a nap on Lincoln's bed at the Wills House. 6. Gettysburg Square beckons history buffs.

