

ND CLUB of GETTYSBURG

UND LUNCHEON 2011

CCW from Top Right - 1. John Delaney presenting his UND speech in the faculty dining hall at Gettysburg College. John provided a great presentation which outlined the outstanding rankings of Notre Dame against other universities and also provided insight to the value of "Subway" alumni. 2. John Steinour poses with some of his favorite members—Tawnya Railing, Jeanette Miller, and Jennifer Krumrine. 3. Rick Staub presents a club memento to 2 Past Presidents, John Murphy and Jim Conrad. (Brendan Cushing Daniels will receive one at the July meeting.) 4. Jim Conrad expresses his appreciation to Jeanette Miller for the quilt she created at the request of Jean Conrad. It has the history of his years as President of the club. Jeanette is an extremely talented person. 5. Rick Staub presents one of his "Sparkplug" awards to Jean Conrad for her work for ND Gettysburg over the last 5 years. Jean is not only active in all club events but she is the club web master for a site that has been named the "Outstanding Web Site" for E/F Clubs at the last 2 Senate Conferences. 6. Rick gives his second "Sparkplug Award" to Jennifer Krumrine for her efforts over the last four years. Jennifer is not only extremely active in all club events but she also serves as the club Secretary. She initiated the club's new SPCA Assist Project. Dan Lyons was awarded the highest club honor, the CORBY Award but was not in attendance due to illness. Dan has been the Internal Vice President of the club for the last three years. Attending this UND event were 58 members and friends.
