

Notre Dame Club of Gettysburg

FATHER CORBY MASS 2011!

The club's annual Father Corby Battlefield Mass took place on June 25th at 10:00am near the Corby statue in Gettysburg. Father Mike Reid was this year's celebrant. For the third year in a row, Tom Murren, the oldest member of the Notre Dame Club of Gettysburg, did the readings during Mass. John Murphy opened the Mass with a history lesson on the legacy of Father Corby, followed by the opening hymn. The Irish Brigade Color Guard was with us once again and John finished the program with his rendition of TAPS. Our guest of honor from Notre Dame was John Delaney, Region 12 Director. There were between 60-70 people in attendance for the Mass.

LEFT - Tom Murren provides the first reading in the Mass as Father Mike looks on. Once again, we had good weather for this event. Father Corby must be pulling strings in heaven.

BELOW—TOP LEFT—LtoR 1. John Murphy practices his rendition of "TAPS" prior to the start of the Mass. 2. John Murphy provides a history lesson to a group of youngsters as Father Mike looks on. 3. Some unexpected attendees drop in. BOTTOM—LtoR 4. Gary Ryan and Dave Cohill of the Irish Brigade Color Guard stand by as Mass is about to begin. 5. Father Mike celebrates the Mass in honor of Father Corby. 6. President Emeritus John Murphy provides his annual history lesson on Father Corby before Mass starts—he is a dedicated Corby historian!

